

TEX, 15-SANT, 26

TEXAS

State

Bexar (15)

County

SAN ANTONIO

Town or Vicinity

2P
4d

HABSI

Structure Boelhauwe, Joseph, House (TEX-3153)

Demolished. Formerly 321 N. Alamo. Limestone and stuccoed brick, 40' (three-bay front) x 50', one story, gable roofs concealed by front parapet with bracketed cornice, front porch with alternating narrow and wide column spacing, rope moldings and intricate jigsaw ornament including central Masonic emblems over arches of porch. Built in 1876-77 by Benjamin Grossenbacher, a skilled German cabinet maker. In 1886 his widow married Joseph Boelhauwe (over) a builder, who enlarged the house at the rear. 2 ext.

photos (1961); 4 data pages (1963); HABSI.

Card prepared July 1975.

Ref: A Hundred Years in San Antonio, Pioneer
Fellow Mills, Naylor Press, 1951. Allying San Antonio, Juliet Mae Haynes, Naylor Press, 1940.
